Fiction

The Wrong End of the Telescope

Rahib Alameddine

The new novel from Alameddine, a National Book Award finalist, is set in a refugee camp on the Greek island of Lesbos, where Mina is assisting a dire situation. She meets Sumaiya, a Syrian refugee in need, and her effort to help propels a remarkable novel into what it means to be human in the most challenging conditions. $27.00

Matrix

by Lauren Groff

This fictionalization of the life of poet Marie de France is a masterpiece. In 1138, sent to a remote abbey by Eleanor of Aquitaine, young Marie must make her way and survive in harsh conditions. Stunning prose makes this novel a joy to read, and one you won't soon forget. $28.00

Bewilderment

Richard Powers

One of the most highly anticipated novels of the season, Powers’ latest is the story of a father and his nine-year-old son trying to recover after the death of the boy’s mother. Fans of The Overstory will be highly satisfied. $27.99

The Sentence

Louise Erdrich

Louise Erdrich’s latest centers around a bookstore in Minneapolis that appears to be haunted by its worst customer. A young employee must try and solve the mystery in this novel by the Pulitzer Prize winner. $28.99

Sankofa

Chibundu Onuzo

46-year-old Anna has just lost her mother, who raised her alone. When Anna goes through her mother’s things, she discovers a diary that reveals the identity of her absent father. Armed with this knowledge, she sets out for West Africa to meet her father for the first time and get answers about her own identity. $26.00

Small Pleasures

Clare Chambers

Set in 2016, this saga of a Mexican American family in 1950s England, is contacted by a young woman who claims to have delivered a daughter from a virgin birth. This could be career-defining reporting for Jean, who becomes deeply involved with the mother’s family. Already a bestseller in the U.K., this book should be a huge hit here as well. $27.99

California Gummy Bears

By a ferryman who will help him cross over. This ghost story is kind and generous, sure to please fans of Klune’s first novel, The House in the Cerulean Sea. $26.99

On Girlhood: 15 Stories From the Well-Read Black Girl Library

Glory Edim

This collection’s fifteen stories, originally published between 1953 and 2018, were selected by the founder of the Well-Read Black Girl book club. Selections include work from Edwidge Danticat, Rita Dove, Toni Morrison and more. A must-have for avid readers of fine fiction. $23.95

Book of Form and Emptiness

by Ruth Ozeki

Young Benny Oh is trying to recover after the death of his father when he begins to experience books and other household items speaking to him, items that his mother is hoarding in her grief over the loss of Benny’s dad. Ozeki has written a beautiful and compassionate story about loss and hope. $30.00

The Days of Arefkete

by Anisah Solomon

Lisaelle is about to host a dinner party for supporters of her husband’s run for state legislature when an FBI agent informs her of potential corruption in the campaign. How will she get through the party? You’ll have to read to find out. $26.00

L.A. Weather

María Amparo Escandón

Set in 2016, this saga of a Mexican American family in L.A. will remind you of popular telenovelas. When Keila asks for a divorce from her husband of 40 years, their grown daughters intervene in this highly readable and entertaining novel. $27.99

On Girlhood: 15 Stories From the Well-Read Black Girl Library

Glory Edim

This collection’s fifteen stories, originally published between 1953 and 2018, were selected by the founder of the Well-Read Black Girl book club. Selections include work from Edwidge Danticat, Rita Dove, Toni Morrison and more. A must-have for avid readers of fine fiction. $23.95

Small Pleasures

Clare Chambers

Jean, a small-town reporter in 1950s England, is contacted by a young woman who claims to have delivered a daughter from a virgin birth. This could be career-defining reporting for Jean, who becomes deeply involved with the mother’s family. Already a bestseller in the U.K., this book should be a huge hit here as well. $27.99

California Gummy Bears

By a ferryman who will help him cross over. This ghost story is kind and generous, sure to please fans of Klune’s first novel, The House in the Cerulean Sea. $26.99

On Girlhood: 15 Stories From the Well-Read Black Girl Library

Glory Edim

This collection’s fifteen stories, originally published between 1953 and 2018, were selected by the founder of the Well-Read Black Girl book club. Selections include work from Edwidge Danticat, Rita Dove, Toni Morrison and more. A must-have for avid readers of fine fiction. $23.95
1000 Years of Joys and Sorrows: A Memoir
Ai Weiwei
Ai Weiwei is one of the most important living artists. In this memoir he talks about his family’s exile to Little Siberia, and his ultimate decision to leave China. $32.00

San Gabriel Mountains Candle
Take a walk on the wild side when you unleash this adventure-inducing candle scented with notes of pine needles, moss, fresh air, and violet. Casted in small batches in Seattle, WA, this product is made of soy and essential oils, and is 100% vegan, eco-friendly, and recyclable. 8 oz.–$27.99 14 oz.–$41.99

Three Girls From Bronzeville: A Uniquely American Memoir of Race, Fate, and Sisterhood
Dawn Turner
Qian Julie Wang arrived in the United States as a seven-year-old undocumented immigrant in 1994. Her family worked in sweatshops in New York despite the fact that both parents were professors in China. The effects of living a life in secret are explored in Wang’s tender and honest memoir of her family’s life. $28.00

Three Girls From Bronzeville: A Uniquely American Memoir of Race, Fate, and Sisterhood
Dawn Turner
Dawn Turner, her sister Kim, and their friend Debra grew up together, yet had vastly different adult lives. Turner looks at their history and writes a warm and compelling book about the ongoing struggles of Black women in America. $28.99

Taste: My Life Through Food
Stanley Tucci
When Stanley Tucci was a young child, the Tucci family moved to Italy for a year-long sabbatical—not one of the events in his life that created his love of food and cooking. Readers will thoroughly enjoy reading about his experiences cooking, eating, and of course, working on Big Night, a foodie movie if there ever was one. $28.99

Our Family Journal
This journal is designed to document your family in any style you like—whether it be yearly family photos, monthly updates, reflections on special holidays, or snapshots and memories from family vacations. Composed of a hard cover and bound in fine linen, each spread features a page to handwrite, and a page to place photos, making it a beautiful gift for those just starting a family, or those chronicling their family’s history. $42.99

Intention Bracelet
Setting an intention is like drawing a map of where you wish to go. It becomes the driving force of your higher consciousness. Put this bracelet on with an intention in mind and wear it as a constant reminder of that intention to help focus energy on achieving it. Made in L.A. $22.99

Our Family
Our Family

Beautiful Country: A Memoir
Qian Julie Wang
Qian Julie Wang arrived in the United States as a seven-year-old undocumented immigrant in 1994. Her family worked in sweatshops in New York despite the fact that both parents were professors in China. The effects of living a life in secret are explored in Wang’s tender and honest memoir of her family’s life. $28.00

Taste: My Life Through Food
Stanley Tucci
When Stanley Tucci was a young child, the Tucci family moved to Italy for a year-long sabbatical—not one of the events in his life that created his love of food and cooking. Readers will thoroughly enjoy reading about his experiences cooking, eating, and of course, working on Big Night, a foodie movie if there ever was one. $28.99

Diamine “Inkvent” Advent Calendar
This unique advent calendar is the perfect gift for fountain pen users. Inside, you will find a treasure trove of 25 new Diamine Inks, including standard, sheening, shimmer, and combo sheening/shimmer. The calendar has 25 doors—one to be opened each day of the advent season—revealing a unique 12ml bottle of ink. The last door, to be opened Christmas morning, houses a special 30ml surprise. $113.99

Capote’s Women
Laurence Leamer
Capote was friends with all the fabulous society ladies of the 1950s & 60s: Slim Haywood, Lee Radziwill, Gloria Guinness et al. After the success of In Cold Blood, he worked on a thinly veiled expose of his friends’ lives—but when an excerpt was published, the women immediately cut off all ties with Capote, who never finished the novel. Leamer’s book chronicles the fallout in a portrait that captures both a complex man and a bygone time. $25.00

Poet Warrior
Joy Harjo
Three-term United States poet laureate Joy Harjo talks about her childhood in Oklahoma and what it means to be the first Native American poet to be named the nation’s poet laureate. Readers will find Harjo’s story inspiring and triumphant. $25.00

Stanley Tucci: Through Food
Taste: My Life

Qian Julie Wang
Qian Julie Wang

Joy Harjo

Ai Weiwei

Laurence Leamer

Dawn Turner

Dawn Turner

Dawn Turner

Dawn Turner

Dawn Turner

Dawn Turner

Dawn Turner

Dawn Turner
Fans of Jinich’s PBS show, Pati’s Mexican Table will be delighted by her new book. More than 150 Mexican specialties were shared by chefs and home cooks whom Jinich encountered while traveling the country. Mexico’s diverse, exciting cuisine is on full display in this fantastic new book. $35.00

Bakers will be happy to have recipes for savory bakes along with an array of sweets and breads. As usual, Greenspan’s excellent recipes and simple instructions can guide any home baker to success. $35.00

The New York Times has become a go-to source for home cooks across the country. The 10th anniversary edition of this indispensable collection features newer, more varied recipes, including many that Hesser makes at home. This book will be a great resource for the home cook. $55.00

The Indigenous heritage of cooking in the U.S. is explored in this excellent new cookbook. Regional recipes from across America are represented, including Cherrystone Clam Soup and Chocolate Bison Chili. A perfect addition to the cookbook collection of avid home cooks. $40.00

Immensely popular Filipinx cuisine is showcased in this beautiful new book. Dimayuga and Mishan offer fresh takes on classics like adobo and bistek, and showcase expert advice for home cooks to up their Filipinx cooking game. $40.00

Sure to be one of the most popular cookbooks of the holiday season, Black Food is a collection of recipes covering the diversity of the African Diaspora through food. There are essays and artwork along with the recipes, making this cookbook a true cultural study. The recipes are mouth-watering and the book also includes a playlist curated by Bryant, so get in the kitchen, put on some tunes, and make something delicious. $40.00

Post-consumer recycled materials and Geoweave™ technology are the secret ingredients behind these super-absorbent, fast-drying, and superior cleaning towels. Featuring bold prints and colors printed in California, these premium, not-so-ordinary tea towels are a feast for your eyes, hands, and dishware. $16.99
Hey Clay
This set is perfect for young artists taking their first step into the magical world of clay creativity. With high-quality clay and access to an app that gives step-by-step 3D instructions, kids can recreate a variety of silly creatures, and learn techniques that will help them insert their very own. App available on Apple App Store and Google Play. $19.99

Woodland Dance
Sandra Boynton
The latest board book from Boynton delivers a charming story of woodland creatures coming together to dance and frolic in a moonlit glade. The perfect bedtime read-aloud! $7.95

Bear Is a Bear
Jonathan Stutzman & Dan Santat
The first collaboration between rising star Stutzman and superstar Santat is a touching celebration of the love between a girl and her best friend, Bear. Sure to warm the heart. $18.99

Playing at the Border
Joanna Ho
A lyrical picture book that tells the story of Yo-Yo Ma’s path to becoming the undisputed master of the cello, culminating in his legendary performance at the US-Mexico border in 2019. A timeless story about building bridges instead of walls. $17.99

Return of the Underwear Dragon
Scott Rothman & Pete Oswald
Having determined that the Underwear Dragon only attacked the kingdom because he didn’t understand the signs asking him not to, Sir Cole sets out on a quest to teach the dragon to read! $17.99

I Am Courage
Susan Verde & Peter H. Reynolds
Being brave doesn’t always mean feeling no fear at all, but instead standing up and fighting in the face of what scares you. A triumphant celebration of inner strength, trying new things, and getting back up when you fall down. $14.99

The People Remember
Ibi Zoboi & Loveis Wise
This debut picture book from superstar Ibi Zoboi is sure to delight both dedicated fans and readers new to this world. A haunting retelling of inventive fairytale adaptations, ancient curses, star-crossed lovers, and plenty of magic feature in this first book of a planned duology. $19.99

Cookie Stamps
These charming stampies are perfect for little chefs, allowing them to decorate baked delights, and incorporate creativity in their play. Each set includes a stainless-steel cookie cutter, a wooden stamper, and 15 interchangeable, food-grade silicone animal stamps. $28.99

The Beatryce Prophecy
Kate DiCamillo & Sophie Blackall
A new fantasy adventure from Newbery Award winner Kate DiCamillo featuring stunning illustrations from Caldecott winner Sophie Blackall. Destined to be a classic! $19.99

Ocean Sensory Bin
Go on a beach adventure without leaving your home with this ocean-themed sensory bin! Tots can experiment with sensory sand, water beads, and squishy ocean animals while building fine motor skills and improving their sensory development. $20.99

Nature Print Kids Yoga Mat
Breathe in the fresh air with this gorgeously illustrated nature mat. Made with 100% recycled tree rubber and luxurious microfiber suede, this yoga mat was designed to be a suitable and comfortable place for little hands and feet to practice and play. $78.99

Hey Clay
This set is perfect for young artists taking their first step into the magical world of clay creativity. With high-quality clay and access to an app that gives step-by-step 3D instructions, kids can recreate a variety of silly creatures, and learn techniques that will help them insert their very own. App available on Apple App Store and Google Play. $19.99

Woodland Dance
Sandra Boynton
The latest board book from Boynton delivers a charming story of woodland creatures coming together to dance and frolic in a moonlit glade. The perfect bedtime read-aloud! $7.95

Bear Is a Bear
Jonathan Stutzman & Dan Santat
The first collaboration between rising star Stutzman and superstar Santat is a touching celebration of the love between a girl and her best friend, Bear. Sure to warm the heart. $18.99

Playing at the Border
Joanna Ho
A lyrical picture book that tells the story of Yo-Yo Ma’s path to becoming the undisputed master of the cello, culminating in his legendary performance at the US-Mexico border in 2019. A timeless story about building bridges instead of walls. $17.99

Return of the Underwear Dragon
Scott Rothman & Pete Oswald
Having determined that the Underwear Dragon only attacked the kingdom because he didn’t understand the signs asking him not to, Sir Cole sets out on a quest to teach the dragon to read! $17.99

I Am Courage
Susan Verde & Peter H. Reynolds
Being brave doesn’t always mean feeling no fear at all, but instead standing up and fighting in the face of what scares you. A triumphant celebration of inner strength, trying new things, and getting back up when you fall down. $14.99

The People Remember
Ibi Zoboi & Loveis Wise
This debut picture book from superstar Ibi Zoboi is sure to delight both dedicated fans and readers new to this world. A haunting retelling of inventive fairytale adaptations, ancient curses, star-crossed lovers, and plenty of magic feature in this first book of a planned duology. $19.99

Cookie Stamps
These charming stampies are perfect for little chefs, allowing them to decorate baked delights, and incorporate creativity in their play. Each set includes a stainless-steel cookie cutter, a wooden stamper, and 15 interchangeable, food-grade silicone animal stamps. $28.99

The Beatryce Prophecy
Kate DiCamillo & Sophie Blackall
A new fantasy adventure from Newbery Award winner Kate DiCamillo featuring stunning illustrations from Caldecott winner Sophie Blackall. Destined to be a classic! $19.99

Ocean Sensory Bin
Go on a beach adventure without leaving your home with this ocean-themed sensory bin! Tots can experiment with sensory sand, water beads, and squishy ocean animals while building fine motor skills and improving their sensory development. $20.99

Nature Print Kids Yoga Mat
Breathe in the fresh air with this gorgeously illustrated nature mat. Made with 100% recycled tree rubber and luxurious microfiber suede, this yoga mat was designed to be a suitable and comfortable place for little hands and feet to practice and play. $78.99
Black Ivy: A Revolt in Style
Jason Jules
Explore how famous and not-so-famous figures in Black culture reinvented men's Ivy League and prep fashions. America's finest photographers show how fashion was reframed and redefined by a generation struggling for racial equality and civil rights. $49.95

Two Worlds: Above & Below the Sea
David Doubilet
From legendary underwater photographer David Doubilet comes this stunning collection of images spanning his fifty-year career. From the Galapagos Islands to the Great Barrier Reef, these photographs reveal our connection and responsibility to natural places few of us ever have the chance to experience firsthand. $39.95

The Antiquarian Sticker Book: Bibliophilia
Farah Jasmine Griffin
Love books? So do we! Quotes from literature, famous author and character images, and historical prints abound in this fanciful sticker collection. $25.99

Read Until You Understand: The Profound Wisdom of Black Life and Literature
Farah Jasmine Griffin
Esteemed scholar, Columbia University English professor, and Guggenheim fellow Farah Jasmine Griffin shares ideas that inspired the oratory, music, literature, and artistry of Black community artists and intellectuals from many generations. $26.95

The Forgotten First
Keshawn Johnson
We’ve all heard about Jackie Robinson, now read the story of Marion Motley, Bill Willis, Kenny Washington, and Woody Strode, the first four men to break the color barrier in professional football. $28.00

Where the Deer & the Antelope Play
Mary Roach
In the way that only she can do, popular science writer Mary Roach explores the intersection of humans and wildlife. Hilarious, perceptive and fascinating. $26.95

Fuzz: When Nature Breaks the Law
Mary Roach
In the way that only she can do, popular science writer Mary Roach explores the intersection of humans and wildlife. Hilarious, perceptive and fascinating. $26.95

The Complete Birds of the World
Norman Arlott
With more than 10,000 species of birds—from the Abbott’s Babbler to the Zebra Finch—painted by the best bird illustrators in the world, this is the ultimate gift for the bird-watcher or aspiring ornithologist in your life. $65.00

The New York Times Book Review 125 Years

From The Souls of Black Folk to There There, reviews by and about many of history’s greatest writers have been compiled in this fantastic literary collection to honor the 125th anniversary of the longest running—and most respected—book review in America. $50.00

The Antiquarian Sticker Book: Bibliophilia
Farah Jasmine Griffin
Love books? So do we! Quotes from literature, famous author and character images, and historical prints abound in this fanciful sticker collection. $25.99

The Atlas of Interior Design
Dominic Bradbury
Indulge in more than 400 interior design masterpieces from all over the globe. This beautifully produced compendium from Phaidon spans nine continents, and reflects a multitude of iconic designers and designs from 1940 to today. $89.95

Read Until You Understand: The Profound Wisdom of Black Life and Literature
Farah Jasmine Griffin
Esteemed scholar, Columbia University English professor, and Guggenheim fellow Farah Jasmine Griffin shares ideas that inspired the oratory, music, literature, and artistry of Black community artists and intellectuals from many generations. $26.95

Black Ivy: A Revolt in Style
Jason Jules
Explore how famous and not-so-famous figures in Black culture reinvented men’s Ivy League and prep fashions. America’s finest photographers show how fashion was reframed and redefined by a generation struggling for racial equality and civil rights. $49.95

Queen of Hearts Flamingo Croquet Set
Pick up a mallet and try not to lose your head with this utterly whimsical Queen of Hearts Croquet Set! Complete with flamingo mallets, wooden croquet balls, and hoops adorned with playing cards, this colorful set is perfect for an escape to Wonderland. $62.99

Your Guide to Not Getting Murdered in a Quaint English Village
Maureen Johnson & Jay Cooper
Beware the vicar! Cheeky British humor at its best for the murder mystery fan. $16.99

The Complete Birds of the World
Norman Arlott
With more than 10,000 species of birds—from the Abbott’s Babbler to the Zebra Finch—painted by the best bird illustrators in the world, this is the ultimate gift for the bird-watcher or aspiring ornithologist in your life. $65.00

Fuzz: When Nature Breaks the Law
Mary Roach
In the way that only she can do, popular science writer Mary Roach explores the intersection of humans and wildlife. Hilarious, perceptive and fascinating. $26.95

Where the Deer & the Antelope Play
Mary Roach
In the way that only she can do, popular science writer Mary Roach explores the intersection of humans and wildlife. Hilarious, perceptive and fascinating. $26.95

The New York Times Book Review 125 Years

From The Souls of Black Folk to There There, reviews by and about many of history’s greatest writers have been compiled in this fantastic literary collection to honor the 125th anniversary of the longest running—and most respected—book review in America. $50.00

Fix-It Kit
This convenient and stylish fix-it kit is made of vegan leather and comes equipped with 22 tools that cover all your basic repair needs. It would make a great addition to any car, office, college dorm, or bookshelf—anywhere you need to fix things in a jiffy. $49.99

Queen of Hearts Flamingo Croquet Set
Pick up a mallet and try not to lose your head with this utterly whimsical Queen of Hearts Croquet Set! Complete with flamingo mallets, wooden croquet balls, and hoops adorned with playing cards, this colorful set is perfect for an escape to Wonderland. $62.99
Set the Night on Fire
Robby Krieger

One of the greatest guitarists of all time, Robby Krieger shares an array of engrossing stories from his life before, during, and after The Doors—from meeting Jim Morrison as a teenager, to battling drug addiction and cancer. $29.00

King of Blues: The Rise & Reign of B.B. King
Daniel de Visé

This authoritative biography presents the life of the most important blues artist ever. Journalist Daniel de Visé interviewed surviving members of King’s family, his band, and managers for this fascinating exploration. $30.00

Paul McCartney—The Lyrics: 1956–Present

This long-awaited two-volume set pairs the definitive texts of 154 songs with McCartney’s first-person commentary about the people, places, and ideas that inspired them. An indispensable set! $100.00

The Rolling Stones: Unzipped

New commentary from the Stones themselves—including the recently deceased Charlie Watts—is integrated into this book along with essays by Buddy Guy, Don Was, Anna Sui and many more. Check full of photographs, with a compelling introduction by Anthony de Curtis. $50.00

Leather Composition Book

The notebook you love but made in a lasting way. Featuring a hard cover, archival quality paper with black edges, and Smyth-sewn binding for strength and longevity, this leather journal is fit for reflections, plans, and notes... or the next great novel! $57.99

The Storyteller: Tales of Music & Life
Dave Grohl

Chronicling the experience of being a kid in Virginia with big dreams, to becoming a famous rock ‘n’ roll musician with Nirvana and Foo Fighters, the new memoir from Dave Grohl focuses a lens as only he can on the highlights of an amazing career that is far from over. $29.95

Reversible Vase

Whether you have a single bud or a pocket full of posies, this dual-purpose vase can accommodate your floral finds. Handcrafted from borosilicate laboratory glass, the clean geometric lines and contrasting colors of this vase look beautiful empty or filled. 2.5x4 inches. $33.99

From Staircase to Stage: The Story of Raekwon and the Wu-Tang Clan
Raekwon

A founding and integral member of the Wu-Tang Clan, and a successful solo artist and entrepreneur, Raekwon uses his natural storytelling ability to take us on his journey to becoming one of the most beloved and influential rappers today. $28.00

The Story of Marvel Studios

Two volumes and more than 500 pages comprise the first fully authorized story of the founding and growth of Marvel Studios, as well as a behind-the-scenes look at the creation of the Marvel Cinematic Universe—from 2008’s Iron Man through 2019’s Avengers: Endgame. $150.00
Beatriz Milhazes

If you don’t know the colorful and energetic artwork of Brazil’s Beatriz Milhazes, you are in for a treat. Featured here are 170+ pieces reflecting her output since 1989, including paintings, prints, installations, collages, and drawings. $75.00

African Artists: From 1882–Now

More than 300 contemporary artists born or working in Africa are represented in this groundbreaking collection. Each image is accompanied with text describing the artist’s unique contribution to their chosen medium. $69.95

The Art of Bob Mackie

Frank Vlastnik & Laura Ross

The first ever authorized collection of Bob Mackie’s work features hundreds of never-before-seen sketches and photographs of dazzling costumes created for everyone from Elton to Beyoncé. $50.00

The Loft Generation

By Edith Schloss

An active member of the New York School, Schloss was at the center of post-war American art. Her detailed stories—featuring De Kooning, Twombly, Cage, & many more—will rivet art fans. $32.00

Japanese Screens

Claire-Akiko Brisset

Brisset’s lavishly illustrated history of Japanese screens from the eighth- to twenty-first centuries comes bound in the Japanese style with a clamshell box and frameable poster. This fine, numbered edition—limited to 300 copies—will make a very special gift for any fan of fine art. $175.00

Just One

Just One is the acclaimed cooperative party game in which you try to correctly guess as many mystery words as possible. Every turn, the guesser gets just one clue—choose the best word to help your teammate, but get creative, because all identical clues will be canceled out! Ages 8+ $27.99

Words Over Easy

Pop the letter eggs into the egg sorter to see where the letters land. Players must scramble to come up with words that utilize all the letters from the green “good egg” side, and that don’t utilize any of the letters from the red “rotten egg” side. When time runs out, players compare their original word lists. Ages 8+ $18.99

What’s That Sound?

Players take turns being sound imitators, while others listen carefully and try to guess which image the imitator is trying to turn into a sound. Sounds easy, right? Not so much! 280 images will challenge the most creative players and place them in hilarious situations! Ages 7+ $14.99

Block Ness

The Block Ness monsters are finally rearing their heads but there’s just one problem—the loch isn’t big enough for everyone! Each turn, players must carefully add a piece to their monster. Be as strategic as you can by using the space on the lake to your advantage, and be the last one to elongate your monster to win! Ages 8+ $28.99

Eidos

The Eidos deck has 73 cards, each with nine different images. Though no two cards are identical, all cards do share one image in common... but can you find the match first? Featuring classic art pieces and seven kinds of gameplay, this small deck, perfect for portable play, is sure to be a mini masterpiece. Ages 8+ $16.99

Triggle

In this cooperative whodunit game, move around the board to gather clues and use an evidence scanner to rule out suspects. As they work together to nab the guilty fox, kids will learn valuable skills such as estimating probability, paying attention to details, and grasping the important role that cooperation plays in problem-solving. Ages 5+ $20.99

Outfoxed

Players stretch a rubber band across four pegs each turn. Whenever they complete a triangle, they get to claim the triangle as their own with a token. Strategy skills will be stretched. Deception will be intertwined into every move. Do you have the brains and patience to claim the most triangles and win the game? Ages 8+ $23.99

Outfoxed

In this cooperative whodunit game, move around the board to gather clues and use an evidence scanner to rule out suspects. As they work together to nab the guilty fox, kids will learn valuable skills such as estimating probability, paying attention to details, and grasping the important role that cooperation plays in problem-solving. Ages 5+ $20.99

Words Over Easy

Pop the letter eggs into the egg sorter to see where the letters land. Players must scramble to come up with words that utilize all the letters from the green “good egg” side, and that don’t utilize any of the letters from the red “rotten egg” side. When time runs out, players compare their original word lists. Ages 8+ $18.99

What’s That Sound?

Players take turns being sound imitators, while others listen carefully and try to guess which image the imitator is trying to turn into a sound. Sounds easy, right? Not so much! 280 images will challenge the most creative players and place them in hilarious situations! Ages 7+ $14.99

Just One

Just One is the acclaimed cooperative party game in which you try to correctly guess as many mystery words as possible. Every turn, the guesser gets just one clue—choose the best word to help your teammate, but get creative, because all identical clues will be canceled out! Ages 8+ $27.99

Block Ness

The Block Ness monsters are finally rearing their heads but there’s just one problem—the loch isn’t big enough for everyone! Each turn, players must carefully add a piece to their monster. Be as strategic as you can by using the space on the lake to your advantage, and be the last one to elongate your monster to win! Ages 8+ $28.99

Eidos

The Eidos deck has 73 cards, each with nine different images. Though no two cards are identical, all cards do share one image in common... but can you find the match first? Featuring classic art pieces and seven kinds of gameplay, this small deck, perfect for portable play, is sure to be a mini masterpiece. Ages 8+ $16.99

Triggle

In this cooperative whodunit game, move around the board to gather clues and use an evidence scanner to rule out suspects. As they work together to nab the guilty fox, kids will learn valuable skills such as estimating probability, paying attention to details, and grasp-